Introducción

Cuando mi amigo Carlos Agüero le preguntó a José Libertella si daba clases él le respondió: “Pibe, estudiate todas las variaciones, todas, a dos manos, y ya está”.

Las variaciones siempre fueron, para los bandoneonistas, un gran desafío técnico. Uno de nuestros horizontes. Tocar parejo. Con buen sonido. Con articulación clara. Se llevan horas y más horas de nuestro estudio semanal.

En este libro pretendí agrupar variaciones que se toquen, que hayan sido compuestas como variaciones y que en lo posible estén en el tono original. Agregué cuando pude el cifrado del acompañamiento a modo de orientación. Y en algunos casos también coloqué una digitación, más allá de que la digitación suele ser opcional y subjetiva. Procuré comenzar con las variaciones más populares y traté de agrupar las versiones de un mismo autor. Al final agregué algunas variaciones de vals y algunas milongas.

Mi bandoneón tiene una afinación unisonora (abre y cierra con la digitación del teclado abriendo) así que preferí no agregar marcas de abriendo y cerrando. Igualmente, al igual que para la digitación, el criterio de cuándo cerrar en la mayoría de los casos es subjetivo.

Este es un libro de distribución gratuita. La idea es que sea compartido mucho y que todos los bandoneonistas puedan utilizarlo. Al mismo tiempo se trata de una construcción grupal. Creo que el trabajo mancomunado es la mejor manera de llegar a crear una biblioteca para el bandoneón que sea moderna y útil. Si tienen variaciones para compartir y agregar a este libro, mándenmelas así las incluyo en futuras ediciones. Si están en formato digital, mucho mejor. Y siguiendo la misma línea, quien tenga correcciones (seguramente se me hayan pasado por alto errores) y/o datos que faltan, les agradecería me indiquen cómo subsanar la falla. La idea es que entre todos vayamos armando un libro que sea cada vez mejor.

Algunos consejos a la hora de estudiar las variaciones

-Estudiar mayoritariamente acompañado de metrónomo. Igual también es útil estudiar sin metrónomo, apuntando al fortalecimiento del tempo interno además de la capacidad de seguir un pulso desde el oído.

-Buscar el sonido y la prolijidad siempre antes que la velocidad.

- Intentar trabajar en el umbral de velocidad donde termina de salir bien y parejo. No estudiar a velocidades donde evidentemente no se logra un buen resultado.

-Teniendo en cuenta que hay diferentes formas y técnicas de tocar las variaciones (desde el ligado hasta el stacatto de los bandoneones de D'Arienzo, pasando por ese lugar intermedio del “suelto”), decidir primero qué articulación se quiere y después tocar todas las notas con esa misma articulación.

-Tener en mente que no se entrena sólo la mano sino también la mente y la oreja. Hay que lograr poder escuchar los errores.

-Practicar modificando el lugar de los acentos, algo que suele emparejar el fraseo.

-Tocar los botones hasta el fondo, con peso y un movimiento preciso y seguro.

-Mantener todo el cuerpo en general relajado. Prestar especial atención a puntos habituales de acumulación de tensiones tales como el pulgar, las muñecas, los codos y los hombros.

-Es bueno no estudiar la misma variación siempre. Muchas veces para superar un escollo técnico preciso es mejor sobrevolar ese problema específico y estudiar otras cosas semejantes para después sí volver al fragmento por resolver.

Agradecimientos

A todos los músicos que escribieron las variaciones.

A Julián Hasse que con su libro 200 variaciones para el estudio diario me motivó para seguir este camino de compilador de variaciones.

A todas las personas que me ayudaron a compilar las variaciones y a los que me ayudaron a hacer este libro, entre ellas Santiago Segret, Pablo Jaurena, Bruno Ludueña y Roberta Maegli.
